Cause for celebration!!

January 31, 2012

Really want to celebrate “Be Kind to Food Servers” month, but can’t remember when it is? Want to send George Clooney a birthday card, but don’t know the date? Are you in charge of the display case at your library and need a fresh idea for special events in July? (It is national horseradish month, after all!)

Chase's Calendar of Events is the reference book for you! This volume lists notable birthdays, historical anniversaries, national and international holidays and more—like state facts, presidential facts, Presidential proclamations, and major awards bestowed during the preceding year. It's a great resource for finding out what special events and celebrations are happening anywhere in the world. Organized chronologically by date this book is fun to look through as well as being a great resource for public relations professionals and event planners—including staff planning library programs!
