Adriance Memorial Library (ADR) is the Central Library of the Mid-Hudson Library System. It has the largest collection of books and audio-visual materials in the system, and provides a variety of services to other member libraries:

Tips
Tuesday's Tips weekly service providing members of the Mid-Hudson Library System digital instruction on a specific tool or resource.

Reference Support: Member libraries can call the ADR reference desk for help with patrons' reference questions after you have exhausted the resources in your library

- ADR reference librarians are available Monday-Thursday 9-9, Friday and Saturday 9-5, and Sunday 2-5. Call (845) 485-3445 x3702, or 1 (800) 804-0092.
- ADR provides Stumped pads to member libraries with handy tear-off sheets that provide patrons directly with the contact information for the ADR reference desk.
- For more in-depth reference support, patrons may submit their request on a Subject Search Form, which is sent to ADR by their home library.

Reference Training: Regional reference training opportunities are listed on the MHL online calendar. Librarians at ADR will provide staff training and consultations on a variety of topics, in your library.
