What to Read Next---

April 17, 2012

Do you draw a blank when a patron tells you they are looking for a book for their Great Uncle Milton who likes books by Stuart Woods, and they want you to recommend other books like that ---but by a different author?

Try the site What Should I Read Next?. This website lets you type in an author or title, and it will come up with a whole list of similar authors and titles. This website is simple and easy to use and will even auto-enter suggestions before you completely type in the title or author.
