NOTE: The APA manual of style calls for titles to be capitalized in a very particular way. Only the first word of the title, first word of the subtitle (after the colon), any proper nouns, and acronyms should be capitalized. Because of programming restraints, there's no way for KnightCite to consistently distinguish what is intended as a proper or common noun, so your title casing was left as is. Please take note of this rule and apply it to the citation after copying it into your reference list. While the Hekman Library has worked hard to verify that KnightCite results are consistent with the rules set out by the citation style guides, KnightCite users are ultimately responsible for the citations they include in their research. Please consult the guides referenced here.

And voilà! After clicking submit your citation is produced!
