Let's Go to the Movies!

December 20, 2011

Trying to find a movie that starred Stewart Granger and Grace Kelly? Trying to find a movie that was about a talking dog? Is all the patron remembers about the movie that the word "race" was in the title-- and it took place in France? Use the Internet Movie Database! It's a searchable site with all you'll need to find actors, movies, and plots of thousands of movies. You can even search for "family friendly" fare...

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the IMDb website. The address bar shows the URL <http://www.imdb.com/genre/family>. The page title is "IMDb: Genre: Family". The main content area is titled "Genre: Family" and features a section for "Most Popular Family Feature Films".

Rank	Movie Title (Year)	Rating	Runtime
1.	Hugo (2011)	8.4/10	126 mins.
2.	The Adventures of Tintin (2011)	7.8/10	107 mins.
3.	The Muppets (2011)	8.1/10	103 mins.
4.	Elf (2003)	6.8/10	97 mins.
5.	Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chip-Wrecked (2011)	2.7/10

On the right side of the page, there is a "BLOCKBUSTER CHECK US OUT!" advertisement with a "Start Your 30 Day Trial!" button. Below the advertisement is a "Refine By:" section with links for Title Data, Title Type, Keywords, Genres, Countries, Languages, Year, Number of Votes, and User Rating. At the bottom of the page, a "Highest Rated Family Feature Films With At Least 1,000 Votes" section lists "1. It's a Wonderful Life" with a rating of 8.7/10.
