LibGuides and Poetry  April 28, 2015

It’s National Poetry Month and LibGuides are a great resource created by students and librarians. The guides are a sort of electronic replacement for pathfinders and can highlight collections that are either online or in your own library. They are easy to navigate and offer a variety of ways to organize information. So this tip is two for one: the beauty of LibGuides and some poetry resources. Happy LibGuiding and Poetry Month!
