Online Ruler

January 3, 2017

Here's a website that can display a ruler in case you can't find a real one at your desk:

<https://www.piliapp.com/actual-size/inch-ruler/>

Are you using 19" monitor ?

- No (please select... ▼)
  - I am using  -inch screen

It first starts by asking if you know your monitor size. If you do then select the green button or type in the monitor size in the box just below it. If you don't the site will go on to display an image to help you.

What is my monitor size?

This process is going to calculate the size of your monitor screen.
Please adjust the blue button to fit the following image.

The default image is a US dollar. If you don't have one handy you can switch to the options shown below this image. You then adjust the image to match the real item using the horizontal toggle.

Are you using 19 " Monitor?

Yes, save and continue. I don't have United States Dollar (USD) ▾
