information provided by Adriance Memorial Library to make your life a little bit easier

Black History Month

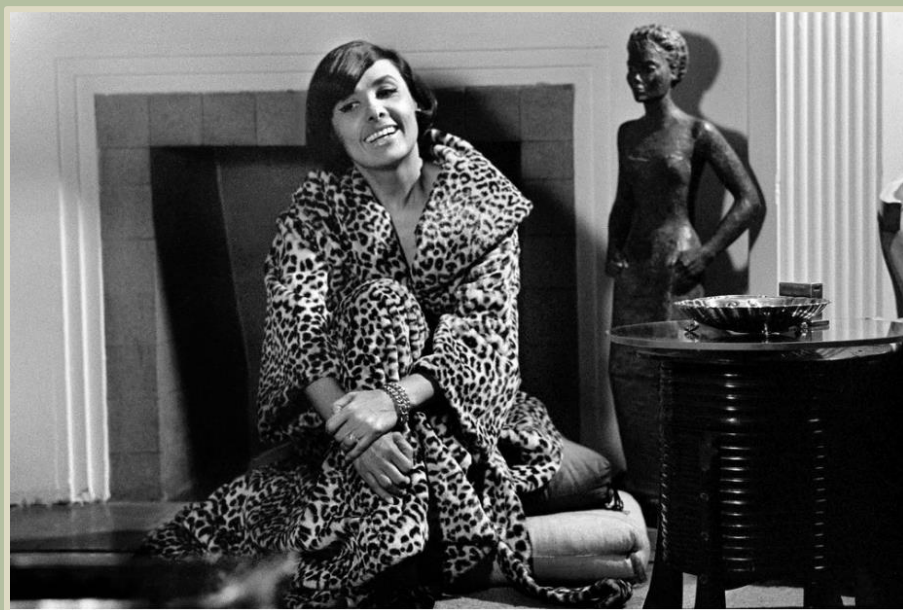

February 21, 2017

As we close out another Black History Month, we try to focus on some of the lesser-known stories or individuals who have offered amazing contributions to America and the world. Below are a few titles from our collections to introduce you to figures you may not have been aware of, or help you learn more about their story. Click on the cover to request a copy!

For more information or other reference and collection development assistance,

If you don't have time to read an entire book, the New York Times ran a feature earlier this month entitled "Un-Published Black History," focusing on a trove of never-before-seen photographs from their archives. Check their amazing images out here:
