NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE Lower East Side Tenement Museum Manhattan, NY The heart of the museum is a historic tenement, home to an estimated 7,000 people from over 20 nations between 1863 and 1935. The tenement's cramped living spaces, the lives of past residents and the history of the Lower East Side, contribute to its representation of the immigrant experience. NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE Martin Van Buren Kinderhook, NY Politics before the Civil War was a whirlwind of opposing interest groups. Martin Van Buren was able to unite those groups becoming president in 1837. As frustration and violence over the extension of slavery grew in the 1840's, Van Buren ran for the presidency twice more from this house. He hoped to unite sectional interests but failed; ultimately so did the union.	 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Alerts &amp; Conditions »</li><li>Basic Information »</li><li>Calendar »</li><li>Maps »</li></ul>
