Independent/Private Schools Search

March 27, 2018

There are many types of independent schools which may meet your needs or goals. The parent's guide to independent schools at the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) website is a good resource to begin learning about them.

Once you know more about independent schools the next step is to find the right one. The following websites are tools to aid your search for independent schools:

- The Association of Boarding Schools \(TABS\)
- National Association of Independent Schools \(NAIS\)
- National Center for Education Statistics \(NCES\) – Private School Search
- Private School Review
- SSAT School Search

For example to search schools in TABS, utilize the following:

Set on a beautiful campus less than an hour's drive from Boston, Groton is a small school offering top opportunities to students in grades 8 through 12. The extended family that is Groton shares a deep commitment of one to another and each to the whole. A broad-based curriculum includes particular advantages such as the opportunity to study two languages concurrently or pursue historical study of a subject on-one with a teacher. A school in the Episcopal tradition, Groton educates the whole person through wide-ranging art, athletic and service programs, the variety of perspectives reflected in a diverse student body, and the unique leadership opportunity of the Groton prefect year. 37% of the student body receives $6.2 million dollars in financial aid annually.
