Teen Video Challenge

In this annual video contest, teens are challenged to create a public service announcement-type video that shows their unique interpretation of the 2019 theme, A Universe of Stories. Videos should promote libraries and reading and be no longer than 60 seconds. Five national winners will be chosen and will receive: a $200 cash prize, and $50 worth of summer reading materials for their library! The contest is open to all teens (librarian and teacher support is encouraged). Videos will be accepted June 1st through August 2nd. To learn how to participate please visit,
