Summer Camping Sites

It’s summer time and the weather is fine! Why not spend a night or two in the Great Outdoors!? The Hudson Valley is home to many different campgrounds which boast everything from the luxurious glamping experience to the more basic, rustic accommodations.

Thompson’s Lake Campground (Albany County)
This more traditional campground is carry-in, carry-out and also has a boat launch.

Brook N Wood Family Campground (Columbia County)
Deluxe cabins and RV rentals are available as well as many RV hook-ups with access to Wi-Fi and cable. Tent sites also come with water and electricity. There is also a heated pool, mini-golf course, arcades, hiking trails, and a playground.

Interlake RV Park and Sales (Dutchess County)
This RV park has cable, Wi-Fi, and electrical/sewage hookups.

North South Lake State Campground (Greene County)
This popular, more traditional campground in the Catskills boasts plenty of hiking trails and historical sites to explore.

Black Bear Campground (Orange County)
Pet-friendly RV and cabin campground includes a swimming pool, fishing pond, and mini-golf.

Clarence Fahnestock State Park (Putnam County)
This large state park has an abundance of hiking trails, campgrounds, and picnic areas, as well as access to boating and fishing.

Yogi Bear’s Jellystone Park at Lazy River (Ulster County)
Two swimming pools, interactive water park, fishing, camp store, Tiki bar, snack bar, cable TV, children’s play area, hot showers and laundry room. Offers rustic and premium cabins for rental, some units are pet friendly.

Croton Point Park (Westchester County)
This park offers cabins and sites for tents and recreational vehicles. Recreational activities include a beach, hiking trails, picnic areas, ball fields, boat launch and fishing.