First Black Friday, next Cyber Monday, and then Giving Tuesday! What is Giving Tuesday?

Giving Tuesday is the Tuesday after Thanksgiving in the United States. Started in 2012, it is a movement to create an international day of charitable giving at the beginning of the holiday season. Today is the perfect opportunity to give to your favorite charity. Whether local, national or international, non-profit organizations rely heavily on donations to continue the good work they do.

Not sure where to donate and want to make an informed decision? Compare organizations at Charity Navigator. https://www.charitynavigator.org/
Enter a charity’s name, EIN or a keyword to get started. Not sure who to pick? Select Advanced Search and browse categories. You can also select 4-star charities (highest rated) right from the home page. Happy Giving Tuesday!