One Million Minutes of Movietone!

August 4, 2015

Movietone has put one million minutes of its movie footage online FREE at YouTube. Yes, that's one million minutes! Someone estimated it would take about two years to watch all of this fascinating newsreel footage – and that's assuming you do nothing else but watch Movietone, so get someone else to bring you sandwiches and soda while you watch.

See Nelson walk into freedom after decades of imprisonment. See Berlin go bonkers for the Beatles. See the last footage of TITANIC as she sails into disaster history.

From the sublime (Grace Kelly's wedding) to the ridiculous (1937 dog walking machine), there's something for everyone to enjoy. Watch history as it happened!
