PPLD POUGHKEEPSIE PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT

TEEN ROOM & COMPUTER USE AGREEMENT

Use of the Teen Room at Adriance Memorial Library is intended for patrons 12 – 18 years old. As per the Library District's Patron Code of Conduct, patrons may not loiter in the halls, stairwells, or elevator of the Library. This is a public library. Please use language appropriate for the environment, even in private conversations.

TEEN ROOM USE

- Teens must present their library card, Teen Room Access Card, or School ID to enter room.

- Teens can read, talk quietly, use computers, or play games in the room. Those who make a disturbance will be given one warning to lower voices. After that, the individual or entire group will be asked to leave the library.

- Teens are responsible for their behavior. Any vandalism, destructive behavior or illegal activities will result in police action as well as suspension of privileges. Parents are responsible for any damage done by their children.

- Covered drinks are allowed in the Teen Room. Only food provided by the library district is allowed.

- The Strba Teen Study Room is for quiet study. Use this room for homework or quiet group activity.

- Underage siblings of teen patrons may only be in the Room to browse if accompanied by a parent.

COMPUTER USE

- Computer access requires a valid library card.

- There can be a maximum of two people on a computer at one time in the Room.

- The computers might be turned off because of a program or an event.

- You must agree not to alter, even temporarily, the computer set-up.

- Individuals are asked to be considerate about accessing potentially controversial information and images. Lack of consideration could lead to suspension of library computer privileges.

PLEASE NOTE

- For the SAFETY and SECURITY of all Teens, we request that you carry your School-issued photo ID, Library Card, Teen Room Access Card, Driver's learning permit, or other photo ID when attending functions in the Teen Room.

- We do not allow unregistered guests in the Teen Room.

- Please mind your younger siblings in the Children's Room if they are too young to stay in the Teen Room.
